Phuket

The excitement of Phuket begins when you are still aloft, the plane floating over the deep green islands of Phang-Nga Bay and then over the farms and forests, and bays and beaches of the island. Before the plane banks for its final run from the emerald sea, you know you are about to touch down on an island that holds some of Asia's most spectacular scenery.

The self-styled 'Pearl of the South' is the largest most celebrated and most popular of Thailand's resort islands. Phuket is exactly what you picture when you think of paradise. White sandy beaches, emerald bays and swaying palm trees. With some of the best scuba diving and sorkelling in the Gulf of Thailand as well as the most happening nightlife, it has long been a magnet for those seeking adventure and relaxation alike.

Simply relax in a hammock and watch the sun sink into the sea while sipping a cocktail.

Lotus Gardens

David Lloyd Resorts at Lotus Gardens, Phuket, Thailand, is located on the Island's northwest shore overlooking the spectacular Andaman Sea. A few minutes away from the exotic turquoise waters of Latan Beach, Lotus Gardens is an exclusive resort of 24 fully-furnished apartments set within tranquil, private gardens. Luxuriously planted with a variety of local trees and vibrant foliage, the resort has plenty of space to retreat and explore the beautiful surroundings. For the more active there is a state-of-the-art infinity swimming pool and fully air-conditioned fitness suite, plus a host of water sports to enjoy. Close by there are day spas to indulge the senses and for keen golfers there are outstanding courses at Mission Hill and Blue Canyon, venue for the Johnnie Walker World Championships, where the course record is held by none other than Tiger Woods.

The exquisitely designed apartment interiors are spacious and airy, taking in Phuket's brilliant natural sunlight. All apartments come with large private sun terraces, complete with a built-in BBQ encouraging owners to take full advantage of the year round tropical climate. Inside, the open plan spaces make for a peaceful and relaxed ambience, not forgetting modern home comforts such as high quality sound system, widescreen TV and Wi-Fi access. The well appointed kitchen and flexible dining areas are perfect for entertaining both family and guests. For nights out there are a variety of fabulous restaurants serving Thai and international cuisine, whilst at Lotus Gardens you will find intimate dining and the resort bar.
